

Michael A. O'Hara III

Ballotpedia provides comprehensive election coverage of the 100 largest cities in America by population as well as mayoral, city council, and district attorney election coverage in state capitals outside of the 100 largest cities. This judge is outside of that coverage scope and does not receive scheduled updates.

Michael A. O'Hara III is a judge for the Colorado 14th Judicial District Court. He was appointed to the court by former Governor Bill Owens in August 2003. He is also the Water Judge for Division 6.^[1]

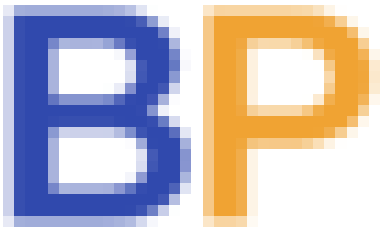

Education

O'Hara graduated from St. Mary's Seminary and then received his J.D. degree from the University of San Diego School of Law in 1984.^[1]

Career

O'Hara began his legal career in 1984, practicing law with the small law firm of Grimes & Warwick in San Diego, California. He practiced there until 1991, when he moved to Steamboat Springs, Colorado. There he worked as a lawyer with the same firm for eleven years, eventually becoming a managing partner. O'Hara was appointed District Court judge in 2003.^[1]

Elections

This page was last updated during the official's most recent election or appointment covered by Ballotpedia. Please contact us with any updates.

Michael A. O'Hara III

Colorado 14th Judicial District
Tenure
Present officeholder

Report an officeholder change
Education

Bachelor's
St. Mary's Seminary
Law

O'Hara was retained to the Colorado 14th Judicial District Court in the general election on November 6, winning 77.08% of the vote.^[2]

See also: Colorado judicial elections, 2012

Judicial performance evaluation

The Fourteenth Judicial District Commission on Judicial Performance announced its recommendations for judges up for retention in 2012. According to its website, the commission evaluates judges based on the following criteria: integrity, legal knowledge, communication skills, judicial temperament, and administrative performance.^[3]

Judge O'Hara was recommended for retention by an unanimous vote.^[4]

See also

- Courts in Colorado
- Judicial selection in Colorado

External links

- 14th Judicial District Homepage (dead link)

Footnotes

1. Official biography of Judge Michael A. O'Hara III (dead link)
2. Colorado Secretary of State, 2012 Official General Election Results
3. Colorado Office of Judicial Performance Evaluation, Press Release: Judge Evaluations Available on Internet August 7 (dead link)
4. Colorado Office of Judicial Performance Evaluation, Michael O'Hara

Colorado courts